

DESCRIBE YOURSELF

He working in academic environment at Universitas Indonesia for teaching, research and community engagement in the field of Medical Physics. Since 2015, He serve as president of Inodnesian Association of Physicists in Medicine and actively involve in Allince of Higher Education in Medical Physics in Indonesia. In the international communities, He active in International Atomic Energy Agency as National and Regional Project Counterpars. He also involved in several position in South East Asian Federation Organizations for Medical Physics, Asia Oceania Federation Organizations for Medical Physics International, and International Organization for Medical Physics. He also published his research Dose Audit in several modalities Radiotherapy and Modified Methods for Electron Beam Output Calibration in peer review journals and proceeding.