

Tomas Kron was born and educated in Germany. After his PhD he migrated to Australia in 1989 where he commenced his career in radiotherapy physics. He now is Director of Physical Sciences at Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre in Melbourne leading a team of some 50 engineers and physicists. Prof Kron has an interest in education of medical physicists, dosimetry of ionising radiation, image guidance and clinical trials, which is demonstrated by 100 invited conference presentations and more than 350 papers in refereed journals.