

Olivera Ciraj Bjelac is Imaging Medical Physicist in the Dosimetry and Medical Radiation physics Section, Division of Human health at International Atomic Energy Agency. She joined the IAEA from the position of full professor of University of Belgrade, Serbia after 25 years of clinical, teaching and research experience in diagnostic radiology medical physics, dosimetry and radiation protection. Olivera is author or co-author of more 200 scientific papers and book chapters.